

Sequence 09 - Academic Integrity Part 2 (24S1)

Final Activity: Graded Quiz

You have reached the last compulsory activity for this session.

On the next page is a quiz, comprising ten multiple choice questions related to what we have covered in this sequence.

There is only one correct response to each question. You can attempt the quiz up to 3 times. Your score from your last attempt of the quiz will count towards your overall grade for this course.

2

Penalties for plagiarism and collusion may include the requirement to revise and resubmit an assignment, receiving a lower grade, or receiving an F grade for the assignment.

Choose one of the following answers.

- True
- False

5

A ghost writer is someone who is paid to write an essay for you.

Choose one of the following answers.

- True
- False

14

According to the 10 Strategies to Reduce Plagiarism, taking good notes is important for writing a good essay.

Choose one of the following answers.

- True
- False

18

According to the 10 Strategies to Reduce Plagiarism, the most important outcome of any assignment is:

Choose one of the following answers.

- Marks
- Your learning
- Proper referencing
- Proper quoting

20

Plagiarism occurs:

Choose one of the following answers.

- when the wrong referencing format and style is used.
- when one does not seek the permission of the copyright owner to use a copyrighted work.
- when one does not properly attribute the source of the information in one's work.
- All of the options listed here are correct.

23

You have used an article to write your assignment and you have properly included the source in the Reference List at the end of your assignment, so it's quite acceptable to copy words from the source without quotation marks and without a citation in the text.

Choose one of the following answers.

- True
- False

24

Xiao Wei copied and pasted material from the internet without using quotation marks around the copied portion, and did not include the source in the Reference List. This type of academic misconduct falls under:

Choose one of the following answers.

- Collusion
- Plagiarism
- Falsifying data
- Cheating

30

Andy must post a brief reflective report on his class discussion board on NTULearn. His friend Jeffrey had graduated the year before from the same course and passed him some of his notes for the course. Andy finds that two of Jeffrey's comments perfectly summarise his own thoughts on the reading he is reflecting on and decides to use Jeffrey's comments in his reflective report. As this reflective report is not assessed, Andy feels that it would be alright to use his friend's comments. Has Andy committed plagiarism?

Choose one of the following answers.

- Yes
- No

32

Using the APA referencing style, which one is the correct Reference List entry for a web document which states the author?

Choose one of the following answers.

- Kumar, P. (2012). The state of the economy.
<http://singbiztoday.com/thestateoftheeconomy.htm>
- P Kumar, 2012. The state of the economy.
- The state of the economy.(2012).
Retrieved <http://singbiztoday.com/thestateoftheeconomy.htm>
- Kumar, P. (2012). The state of the economy.
Retrieved from <http://singbiztoday.com/thestateoftheeconomy.htm>

33

Paraphrasing a passage from another source means:

Choose one of the following answers.

- you are copying this passage word for word
- you are re-writing this passage in your own words without changing its original meaning
- you are simply changing a few words within the passage without substantially changing the structure of the passage
- you are re-interpreting this passage to include your own personal viewpoints